

Cambridge 3. 23. 82

My dear wife,
If you think you will be as well satisfied with a Kranich and Bach Bijou Guard as an Whight, we will consider the piano question settled. Of course we do not want either until the first of Oct-
ber. We will have no place for them until then.
Will select from the catalogue the style of organ I think I should like subject to your approval and let you know as soon as convenient. E. continued

Mr. Decker was very much pleased with your kind attention and since his return has spoken often of it.

Miss Revere called at the store a few evenings ago with Mrs. Pratt. Said she had been to call on Mrs. Washburn and Mrs. Bradford and that she expected to go to N.Y. within a fortnight.

She is looking well and is thought to be in very good health now. Love you very before yesterday I am, John and Alfred Harper and Leiber.

The four little girls are employed and playing cards. They are Aunt Grace, Aunt Ellen, Aunt Harriet and my dear grandmother. It is laughable to hear their contests over disputed points of the game.

Albert has had some photographs taken and they are a good likeness.

Could you come on in May before we commence the repairs
