

Cambridge 11. 6. 82.

My dear wife,

Arrived safely and found as I expected everything waiting to be finished according to my directions. So you see I stuck quite as long as I could with you although it was only a few days.

The piano was sent this afternoon and I will send the bill of lading to your father this evening. I lost my time in hopes that we may find a purchaser in time to help out on the other.

The progress well with the house and no doubt all will be completed in time for our reception.

Mother has been trying to excuse herself and I have refused to accept any of her excuses and tell her that if there are any to be made she should make them to Mrs Slade. She will go for I shall request it.

What do you think of the following:

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Slade, requests your presence at the marriage of their daughter Louise.

To
Hon A. A. Ames,
Wednesday, November twenty ninth, at Eleven o'clock A. M.
Church of the New Jerusalem Murray Place on Clark St., Brooklyn, N. Y., 1852.

Also;
Mr and Mrs Hon A. Ames
at Home

Tuesday Evenings in December 894 Main St - Cambridge Mass.

One evening a week will answer for reception evenings.
Don't you think so?

Lizzie has written you in regard to what she thinks of your request - to have her stand with you so it will be needless for me to say anything.

I will see Ed Cutler and find out if he will be able to leave business so as to be with us. I hope he will for I greatly desire it.

And that - as far as I know now, shall want for my use 181 cards & invitations and with your list - that will make 311. I would like to know what friends that - we both are acquainted with you have on your list so as not to send duplicates I must go to town

so will close,

Your Affectionate
Husband
Hills
