

San Francisco Cal. 3.7. 1888.

My dear Lou,

You will no doubt be pleased to learn that Miss Rockwell was quite right when she informed you that I would return home soon. I will start for home on Monday, next, the 12th inst., and anticipate great pleasure in a reunion which is adained to take place much sooner than I expected.

Will advise you by telegraph of the day and hour of my arrival.
With much love for Mamma

Laurie, Ruthie and Fannie I remain

Your husband
Bill
